

Please do not restrict the content of satellite radio to non-local information. This is a with medium with great promise for providing news, sports, information and entertainment and it needs to grow, not be restricted in the scope of its offerings. I enjoy what it offers now, and look forward to innovative programing in the future.